Liberty University—BS, Psychology

Rebecca is responsible for all aspects of Hospice of Marion County's major gift and planned giving programs. Prior to joining HMC, Rebecca worked in the creative arts departments of two area churches. She also was employed by the Christian Broadcasting Network, Inc. in Virginia Beach, VA, where she traveled for the network cultivating major donor relationships, raising money for various humanitarian campaigns, and learning to navigate various avenues of non-profit philanthropy.

Rebecca loves connecting people together and considers fundraising for Hospice of Marion County to be a privilege. Rebecca has also served on the leadership board of Kimberly's Center for Child Protection.
